Pearses camogie camp

ALL-Ireland Club champions Pearses are hosting their first annual 'camogie camp' at Gurteen in July when prominent coaches and county players will provide expert tuition.

The camp will be a five day residential course with a choice of dates — from July 6 to 11 or July 13 to 18 — and the comprehensive coaching programme embraces all the skills and rules of the game.

Galway camogie star Sharon Glynn and Collette Kennedy, manager of the Galway minor team which won the All-Ireland in 1996, are two of the coaches and the camp is open to girls from 11 to 15 years of age.

Application forms and a £10 deposit should be sent to Noreen Duane of Gurteen, Ballinasloe. All course participants require a track suit, boots and runners, helmet, hurley and swimming gear.
